Raise your voice and shape the future of WA!

The Minister for Youth wants to hear from YOU.

Applications to join Ministerial Youth Advisory Council (MYAC) are now open!

MYAC members provide advice to the Minister for Youth, the Hon Simone McGurk MLA, on topics that are important to young people. The experiences and unique perspectives of young people are vital to policy makers. MYAC is a great way to meet other like-minded young people who are passionate about the community and making change.

To be apply you must be:

- Aged between 15 and 25 years old
- Living in Western Australia
- Interested in making a difference and having your voice heard

For more information or to apply, visit the MYAC website:
