

Travel and accommodation allowance online portal

The Department of Training and Workforce Development (the Department) assists apprentices and trainees with travel and accommodation related costs for their off-the-job training component when you travel more than 70 kms to a registered training provider (RTO).

Check your eligibility

You are eligible if you:

- Have a residential address in Western Australia;
- Attend off-the-job training via a RTO;
- Travel by private vehicle, bus, train or plane (minimum round trip distance limits apply);
- Travel to the closest RTO available; and
- Are an active or suspended apprentice or trainee.

For more information on eligibility visit the TAA Portal.

From 1 July 2023, apprentices will receive increased per-kilometre and accommodation rates when claiming the TAA for off-the-job training that commenced after 1 July.

Lodge your TAA claim online within 60 days of completing your off-the-job training.

Portal available from 1 July 2023

Find out more at dtwd.wa.gov.au/TAA

For enquiries relating to TAA, or for support submitting your application, please visit our website.

Scan the QR code to make a claim.

