

Fit and Proper Person Declaration

Anyone who manages a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) including Executive Officers, Legally Responsible Officers, or Owners must satisfy Fit and Proper Person Requirements as outlined in Schedule 3 of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 (Standards for RTOs) and the Vocational Education and Training (General) Regulations 2009.

Meeting the Fit and Proper Person Requirements is a requirement for registration with the Training Accreditation Council (TAC).

It may be appropriate for high managerial agents, depending on their role within the organisation to also satisfy the Fit and Proper Person Requirements.

You must make a 'Fit and Proper Person Declaration' when the organisation:

- applies for initial registration, or
- applies for renewal of registration as an RTO, or
- employs a new executive officer/s, legally responsible officer, high managerial agent/s or owner/s.

When assessing whether a person meets the Fit and Proper Person Requirements the TAC may consider any matters relevant to the fitness and propriety of a person associated with the organisation.

TAC will notify the organisation in writing if additional declarations from other people associated with the organisation are required.

Fit and Proper Person Declaration

The Standards for RTOs include some definitions of terms used within Schedule 3 and outlines a range of matters TAC will have regard to when considering the fitness and propriety of a person. Please refer to the Standards for RTOs for specific compliance requirements.

This section provides guidance to applicants/RTOs when completing the TAC Fit and Proper Person Declaration Form.
