

Registration

Painting contractor (individual)

Form 24

Use of this form

This form is to be used by people applying to be registered as painting contractors with the Building Services Board.

Registration as a painting contractor entitles the registration holder to carry out painting work.

Registration as a painting practitioner

A person, partnership or company must be registered as a painting contractor to:

- use a prescribed title such as registered painting practitioner; and
- be a nominated supervisor for a registered painting contractor.

Registration as a painting practitioner does not authorise a person to provide services as a painting contractor.

Registration as a painting contractor

A person, partnership or company must be registered as a painting contractor to:

- contract with others to provide services as a painter with a value $1,000 or more and is located within the area of the Board's jurisdiction; or
- use a prescribed title such as registered painting contractor.

When considering an application for registration as a painting contractor the Board considers among other factors, an applicant's financial history, financial capacity and arrangements in place to manage and supervise painting services.

The obligations of painting contractors are published on the Department's website: www.commerce.wa.gov.au/publications/obligations-registered-painting-contractors

Nominated supervisor

A painting contractor must have a registered painting practitioner appointed as the nominated supervisor at all times.

An individual painting contractor must also hold a painting practitioner registration. If you are not eligible for painting practitioner registration, you will not be able to satisfy the requirements of this application Form 24.

Financial probity

If you have experienced an insolvency event, further information regarding this event may be required. In certain circumstances, the Board has the power to declare a person an excluded contractor from registration as a painting contractor on either a temporary or permanent basis.

Ineligible person and excluded contractor

If you are currently declared an ineligible person or an excluded contractor (either temporarily or permanently), you cannot be registered as a painting contractor.

Financial capacity

Painting contractors must inform the Board if they have been an insolvent in the last three years.

Building service debt

If you have incurred a building service debt, being an unsatisfied court judgement or adjudication determination that has not been paid, you cannot be registered as a painting contractor.

Duration of registration

Registration is for a period of three years.

Application and registration fees

Payment of both an application fee and a registration fee must accompany this application.

GST is not payable on these fees.

The registration fee is for the three years.

If the Board refuses your application the registration fee will be refunded. The application fee is non-refundable.

Please refer to our website for the current schedule of fees.

Registration requirements

To be considered for registration you must:

- provide a complete application including payment of application and registration fees;
- be currently registered or in the process or being registered as a painting practitioner with the Building Services Board;
- not be an ineligible person or excluded contractor;
- disclose any adverse financial history;

- provide confirmation (for those applicants previously bankrupt) you have the financial capacity to meet debts as and when they fall due;
- have arrangements in place to ensure that painting services to be carried out will be managed and supervised in a proficient manner;
- have no unpaid building service debts; and
- comply with any other requirements.

Complete your application

Your application cannot be processed unless all sections are completed, all attachments provided and fees paid.
