

For the teacher: Suggested ideas for “Rights and Responsibilities in the Classroom”

Rights: privileges granted to citizens that are often written into laws

Responsibilities: duties or obligations undertaken by a citizen to maintain a peaceful and harmonious society

The right to be safe

The responsibility to follow the school rules

The right to voice your opinion

The responsibility to respect the opinion of others

The right to use school property

The responsibility to respect the property of others

The right to go to school and be educated

The responsibility to always do your best at school

The right to be fairly treated

The responsibility to always treat others fairly