
Nellie Daniels

I was born on the 2.8.1917 at Hillcrest Hospital, North Perth. I attended school until the seventh grade and worked at the Wyndham Meat Works until the Japanese invaded Darwin and then I came back to Perth and worked at Gadsens, O'Connor, making tents, mattresses and sandbags for the troops.