

Laurence Alfred Robb

East Ham, London, England. Attended state school until 14 years then had a couple of various jobs including seafaring on the Blue Star Liner – Almeda Star running London – Buenos Aires.

War service 15/03/40 to 20/03/46, after A.A. Z. Bty Rocket Guns, volunteered for the 5th Regiment Maritime R.A. serving on merchant ships of all nationalities any where in the world.

My final sojourn was to Singapore at the ending of the far-east war. My war years though harrowing were marvellous for the comradeship of my mates, will never forget them.