Born: 06.08.1922 in the town of Perenjori in WA.

I was educated in Fremantle and Geraldton. From 1940 – 1945, I worked for the Bank of NSW in Geraldton, Morowa and Albany. During the war, I joined the Volunteer Emergency Service Corp, where I completed my First Aid and Home Nursing courses.

I also joined a concert party, playing solo violin, entertaining the service men and women mainly in Geraldton, and later did plane spotting in Morowa as a volunteer.
