

Alexander Wilson

I enlisted in the army and later 24 Company AASC was formed and this unit was attached to the 13 Aust Inf Bde which was sent to Darwin 1943 where we experienced a few air raids. After 16 months I joined the water transport in Victoria and the unit I was in – 54 Port Crat Coy sailed from Brisbane to Torokina, Bouganville and later on to Rabaul.

I was hospitalised in Melbourne on my way home and from Hollywood Hospital I was discharged in 1946.
