Transitional Sentencing Provisions: This table is divided into thirds based on the three relevant periods of Sentencing Provisions:

- Post-transitional provisions period (from 14/01/2009 31/08/2003)
- Transitional provisions period (between 31/08/2003 and 14/01/2009)
- Pre-transitional provisions period (pre 31/08/2003)

These periods are separated by a row which shows when the transitional provisions were enacted, and another showing when they were repealed.

A non-immediate custodial disposition is exceptional. At [48] [the judge]... having decided that the plea of guilty to count 2 merited some mitigation of the penalty on count 1, needed only to have taken it into account as part of the intuitive synthesis of all of the relevant circumstances of the case... His honour was not required to express the amount of any discount for this factor. not dealt with.	The victim received lacerations to his face, a fractured nose and broken elbow. The appellant derived no benefit from the robbery. The sentencing judge was unable to make a finding attributing particular injuries to each offender; however found the appellant's assault 'undoubtedly' contributed to the injuries.
