FISH RESOURCES MANAGEMENT ACT 1994

COTTESLOE REEF FISH HABITAT PROTECTION AREA ORDER 2001

FD 896/99 [442]
Made by the Minister under section 115.

Citation
1.   This Order may be cited as the Cottesloe Reef Fish Habitat Protection Area Order 2001.

Definition
2.   In this Order "waters of the Cottesloe Reef" means all those waters bounded by —
    (a)   the high water mark,
    (b)   a line drawn 800 metres westward from the high water mark (being a prolongation of the centre of North Street, Cottesloe where North Street meets with Marine Parade, Cottesloe),
    (c)   a line drawn 800 metres westward from a point on the high water mark west of a point 180 metres north of the northernmost part of the Leighton Railway Overpass where it meets Port Beach Road, Fremantle, and
    (d)   a line linking the westernmost points of the lines described in (b) and (c).

Area of WA waters set aside as fish habitat protection area
3.   The waters of the Cottesloe Reef are set aside as a fish habitat protection area.

Purposes for which area is set aside
4.   The purposes for which the waters of the Cottesloe Reef are set aside as a fish habitat protection area are the —
    (a)   conservation and protection of fish, fish breeding areas, fish fossils and the aquatic ecosystem;
                    and
    (b)   management of fish and activities relating to the appreciation and observation of fish.

Dated this 17th day of September 2001.

KIM CHANCE, Minister for Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries.