

State Design Review Panel – Biographies

Munira Mackay

Director

Mackay Urban Design

Munira Mackay is a qualified urban designer and a Chartered Member of the Royal Institute of British Architects and has over 35 years' experience in both skill areas. She has worked in government, education and for the past 20 years, in private practice.

Munira developed her passion for urban design at Oxford Brookes University (UK) where she studied under the authors of Responsive Environments – A Manual for Designers.

Her current and extensive design review panel experience covers the Cities of Vincent, Joondalup, Fremantle, Canning, and Wanneroo, as well as the Town of Mosman Park and DevelopmentWA.

She believes the State Design Review Panel can actively contribute to high quality design based on the pursuit of good design principles and from a community perspective, delivering projects with an engaging ground level and civic space, residential amenity for liveability, integrated soft landscape, and friendly, safe places with character.
