

State Design Review Panel – Biographies

---

Sara Stace	Sara Stace is a registered architect (NSW) and has been on the New South Wales State Design Review Panel since 2018.
Director, Cities
WSP	She graduated Architecture at University of Western Australia and brings a multidisciplinary approach to urban and transport policy. She is represented on international boards including the Future of Place (Smart Cities Council Australia New Zealand) and the World Cycling Alliance.
	As Director National Urban Policy in the Australian Government's Major Cities Unit (Infrastructure Australia) Sara wrote Creating Places for People: the national urban design protocol; and has won awards from the Australian Institute of Architects, Place Leaders, Planning Institute of Australia and Greater Cities Commission.

---