

State Design Review Panel – Biographies

---

Sophie Cleland	A Project Leader with over 20 years' experience, Sophie enjoys leading the process of creating a building from initial ideas through to construction. Naturally drawn to working with people, Sophie's communication style is hands-on and accessible.
Principal
Architectus	Sophie brings over 6 years' experience on Design Review Panels from South Australia and New South Wales. She is as skilled in facilitating round-table workshops and discussions as she is in forging trusting relationships with clients, stakeholders and subconsultants through commitment and honest dialogue. Sophie is an Australian Institute of Architecture Victorian Chapter Councillor and sits on the board of the Architects Registration Board of Victoria. Sophie is motivated by engaging with communities through architecture working at many scales, including on institutional, public realm, urban and regional projects. Her skills have been recognised through award-winning complex projects for many high-profile community, public, cultural, and residential projects in Victoria, Western Australia, Queensland, and the ACT.

---