

State Design Review Panel – Biographies

Tina Arthur	Tina Arthur has experience in design review as member and Chair of the Town of Cottesloe Design Review Panel. She has 33 years' experience working with the State Government in architectural and managerial positions.
Former Public Sector Architect
Self-employed/Semi-retired	Tina has project managed courthouse facilities in Western Australia, most recently the Cathedral Square project in Perth CBD which included accommodation for the Supreme Court, the State Administrative Tribunal, and head office accommodation for the Department of Justice. As Director Asset Management for the Department of Justice, Tina managed the preparation and regular updates of the 'W.A. Courthouses Standard Design Brief', Strategic Asset Plans and business cases seeking Treasury capital and operational funding for civic infrastructure. Tina has experience in the Department of Finance as an environmental architect covering the architectural sciences of acoustics, sustainability, and energy conservation in building design. She was elected Fellow of the Australian Institute of Architects in 1999.
