

Local Government Exemptions - Planning and Development (Local Planning Schemes) Regulations 2015

LPS Regulations – Exemptions from complying with r.76B and Schedule 2, cl.87.
Local government	Giving notice to owners and occupiers cl.64(3)(b)	Sign on site cl.64(3)(c)	Publish in a newspaper r.76A(4) c.87(4) cl.64(3)(a)
Regional South West – Great Southern	Exempt from compliance to notify occupiers but may be considered by the local government based on the services provided by a local postal service and the ability to contact affected parties effectively and efficiently.	Exempt from compliance but may be considered by the local government based on the site’s remoteness, accessibility, effectiveness, cost, proximity to the nearest signage service provider.	Exempt from compliance but may be considered by the local government based on the frequency of newspaper circulation, lead time for publishing, cost.
Shire of Broomehill-Tambellup
Shire of Cranbrook
Shire of Gnowangerup
Shire of Katanning
Shire of Kent
Shire of Kojonup
Shire of Woodanilling

NOTE: The above exemptions can be utilised by the local governments listed if required, and does not prohibit the advertising or publishing of a document in this manner. Local government can exercise flexibility in determining the most appropriate means by which public feedback may be obtained.