

Land Tax - Application for Residential Exemption – Owner in Care

When to use this form

Use this form to apply for a land tax exemption for private residential property owned by a person who has entered full-time care. See the fact sheet for more information.

When not to use this form

Don't use this form if:

- the property is held in trust or owned by a company.
- the owners are living at the property. If all or some owners are living at the property, you can apply for a residential exemption using Form FLT21.
- you didn't previously use the property as your primary residence.

Definitions

Private residence A building or part of a building that was occupied, or fit to be occupied and intended by the owner to be occupied as a place of residence.

Full-time care To qualify for the exemption, you can be living full-time in:

- a public or private hospital
- a community health service, or a hospital providing treatment for people with a mental illness
- a private psychiatric hostel
- an aged care facility or
- a facility specialising in palliative care.

Alternatively, full-time care is being cared for by a person receiving a carer payment under the Social Security Act 1992 (Cth) for your care.
