

Payroll Tax Fringe Benefits End of Year Reconciliation Worksheet

IMPORTANT

You do not need to return this worksheet to RevenueWA

If you have declared fringe benefits on your monthly returns using the estimated method, use this worksheet to calculate the fringe benefits adjustment you need to declare on your June 2023 payroll tax return.

The amount should be the difference between:

- a) the adjusted WA fringe benefits declared in the FBT return for the year ending 31 March 2023 and
- b) the total amount of fringe benefits declared in the payroll tax returns from July 2022 to May 2023.
