

Three Levels of Government Online Program

Key words

Federation:
The joining together of the six British colonies in Australia in 1901.

Westminster:
The British system of government Australia used when setting up Federal Parliament.

Federal:
The level of government that makes laws for Australia as a whole nation.

State:
The level of government that makes laws for their own state. The ACT and NT are territories.

Local:
The level of government that takes care of things in the community.

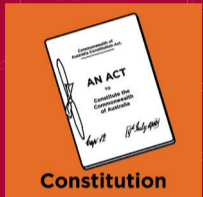

Government:
A group of people with the authority to run a country, state or local area.

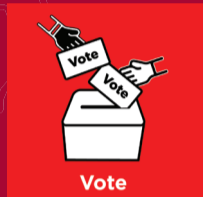

Parliament:
A place where laws are debated and made by representatives of the people.

Governor-General:
The Monarch's representative in Australia.

Constitution:
This document sets out the rules on how Australia should be governed. There are eight chapters, and it came into effect in 1901.

Vote:
The way Australian citizens aged 18 years or older can have their voice heard.

Democracy:
A system of government allowing citizens to choose who should govern their country, state or community.

Who am I?

His Excellency General the Hon David Hurley AC DSC FTSE

I was born 26 August 1953.

I am a Australian former senior officer in the Australian Army.

I am the current Governor-General of Australia.

The Hon Anthony Albanese MP

I was born 2 March 1963.

I am the leader of the Australian Labor Party.

I am the current Prime Minister of Australia.

His Excellency the Hon Christopher Dawson AC AMP

I was born 28 November 1958.

I was the Police Commissioner of Western Australia from 2017 to 2022.

I am the current Governor of Western Australia.

The Hon Roger Cook MLA

I was born 20 August 1965.

I am the leader of the Western Australian branch of the Labor Party.

I am the current Premier of Western Australia.

Responsibilities of the Three Levels of Government

Federal

State or Territory

Local

Shared

How each level of the Australian Government is organised

Federal	State	Local
Prime Minister	Premier	Mayor/ Shire President
Governor-General Monarch's representative	Governor Monarch's representative	No representative of the Monarch
Bicameral (two houses) • House of Representatives • Senate	Bicameral (two houses) • Legislative Assembly • Legislative Council	Council chambers
Parliament House Canberra	Parliament House Perth	Council House Perth
Makes laws for Australia	Makes laws for the state	Makes by-laws for the local community

Find us on

WA.gov.au

The Constitutional Centre of WA

Scan for access to our online programs

Produced by the Department of the Premier and Cabinet 2023.

Acknowledgement of Country

The Government of Western Australia acknowledges the traditional custodians throughout Western Australia and their continuing connection to the land, waters and community. We pay our respects to all members of the Aboriginal communities and their cultures; and to Elders both past and present.