Important
A person who provides information to the Commissioner of State Revenue knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular commits an offence under the Taxation Administration Act 2003. The penalty for the offence is – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>$20,000 and</li> <li>three times the amount of duty that was avoided or might have been avoided if the false or misleading information had been accepted as true.</li> </ul>

Section 244B of the Duties Act 2008
Duty is not chargeable on the grant or transfer of a licence for a vehicle if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a purchaser enters into an agreement to purchase a vehicle and</li> <li>after the purchaser takes possession of the vehicle, the purchaser returns the vehicle for a refund or a replacement vehicle and the return is accepted</li> </ul> This exemption only applies to genuine returns of the vehicle for a refund of the purchase price or replacement vehicle. It does not apply to the subsequent purchase of the same vehicle by the seller from the purchaser, or a trade-in associated with the subsequent purchase of another vehicle from the seller.

Time limits to apply for a reassessment of duty
Section 244B of the Duties Act 2008 provides that a taxpayer can apply for a reassessment of an agreement to purchase a vehicle as a cancelled vehicle transaction within five years after the vehicle licence was granted or transferred to the purchaser.
