

Land Tax - Residential Exemption Application: Trust Property used by a Disabled Beneficiary

Use this form to apply for an exemption from land tax for a private residential property that is held in trust for a person with a disability

Submit the application form on page 2, making sure you have answered all questions. We may request supporting documentation to verify information detailed on this form.

Eligibility

You may be eligible for a land tax exemption if, at midnight on 30 June in the financial year before the assessment year:

- the land is held in trust for one or more disabled beneficiaries and
- at least one of the disabled beneficiaries uses the land as their primary residence (sole or principal place of residence).

See Commissioner's Practice LT 7 'Exemption for Trust Property used by Disabled Beneficiary'.

A disabled beneficiary, in relation to land held in trust, means a person who has a beneficial interest in the trust, whether the interest is contingent or otherwise, and who is:

- qualified for a disability support pension under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth) Part 2.3 (whether or not the person receives that pension) or
- under 16 years of age and is cared for by a parent or guardian, within the meaning given in the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth), who is qualified for a carer payment under Part 2.5 of that Act in respect of that care (whether or not the person receives that payment) or
- a minor who is an orphan.

Supporting documents

Provide the following supporting documents with this application:

- a copy of the trust deed
- a duly endorsed copy of the offer and acceptance or contract of sale showing that the trustee purchased the property on behalf of the trust and
- a copy of a Pensioner Concession Card or a letter issued by Centrelink stating the person is:
  - (a) qualified for a disability support pension under the Social Security Act 1991 Part 2.3 or
  - (b) under 16 years of age and is cared for by a guardian or parent within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 and who is qualified for a carer payment under Part 2.5 of the Act in respect of that care.
