PART 3 – REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE'S CONCLUSIONS

4. Maximum hourly rates changed – scale of costs amended

- (1) As a result of its inquiries described in clause 3, the Committee is satisfied it is appropriate:
  - (a) to continue to adopt hourly rates charged by law practices as the basis for the rates used in the Legal Profession (Non-Contentious Business) Determination 2025;
  - (b) to retain a system of instruction fees as set out in items 1 to 5 of Table A of the Legal Profession (Non-Contentious Business) Determination 2025; and
  - (c) to change the name of the Determination to better reflect modern legal practice, including the inclusion of counsel fees in this Determination.

- (2) It is the recommendation of the Committee in light of prevailing market and economic considerations, that the hourly rates referred to in subclause 4 (1) be varied from the hourly rates used in the Legal Profession (Non-Contentious Business) Determination 2023<sup>2</sup>. The rates which will apply are set out in Item 7 of Table A of the Legal Profession (Non-Contentious Business) Determination 2025.
- (3) The Determination of the Committee does not override the entitlement of a law practice to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act.

5. Application

- (1) This Determination applies to the maximum remuneration of law practices in respect of any work carried out by a law practice not being of a contentious nature and which is not governed by any other determination of the Legal Costs Committee under section 275 of the Act.
- (2) This Determination does not apply to the remuneration of law practices based on a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act.
- (3) This Determination does not apply to the remuneration of law practices based on costs incurred before the commencement of this Determination.

6. Costs

- (1) Unless a law practice has made a written agreement as to costs with a client under the provisions of the Act, the costs payable by the client to the client's law practice shall not exceed an amount that is reasonable in the circumstances, that amount to be calculated on the basis of:
  - (a) the instruction fees and other fees for specific items set out in items 1 to 6; and
  - (b) the time reasonably taken to perform the work referred to in item 7, charged at an hourly rate that does not exceed the hourly rates set out in that item.
- (2) By way of example, the business to be performed under item 7 may include drafting of advice, advising on estate planning, administration of estates, drafting or advising on deeds, contracts or agreements, and other similar non-contentious work not otherwise provided for specifically in items 1 – 6 of this Determination, or chargeable under the Legal Profession (Non-contentious Probate) Determination 2025.

7. Instruction fee when acting for both parties to a transaction

Subject to clauses 8 and 9, where a law practice lawfully acts for both parties to a transaction, the law practice is entitled to charge each party the relevant instruction fee relating to that transaction.

8. Instruction fees for related transactions

- (1) Subject to this clause, where a law practice acts for either a buyer-mortgagor or for a seller-mortgagee, the law practice may charge either the instruction fee fixed in relation to the sale or the instruction fee fixed in relation to the security, but not both.
- (2) Where a law practice acts for a seller in circumstances to which item 5 applies, and the consideration or part thereof is secured by a security prepared by the same law practice and executed by the buyer in favour of the seller, the law practice shall be entitled to charge in respect of the sale the fee set out in item 5 reduced by 25%, and for instructions in respect of the security the instruction fee calculated in accordance with item 3 on the basis of the sum secured.
- (3) Where, in respect of one and the same transaction, a law practice lawfully acts for both a buyer-mortgagor and a seller-mortgagee:
  - (a) if all the costs are to be paid by only one of the parties, the law practice is entitled to charge the instruction fee in relation to the sale, calculated on the basis that the law practice was acting for the buyer, but is not entitled to charge an instruction fee in relation to the security;
  - (b) if each party is to pay their own instruction fee, the law practice is entitled to charge each party an amount so that the aggregate of the amounts payable by each is no greater than the instruction fee in relation to the sale, calculated on the basis that the law practice was acting for the buyer.

- (4) Where, in one and the same transaction, a law practice lawfully acts for both the seller and the buyer or for both the mortgagor and the mortgagee, the law practice is not entitled to charge in respect of the instructions any amount which is greater in the aggregate than the instruction fee in relation to the sale or the security, calculated on the basis that the law practice was acting for the buyer or the mortgagor, as the case may be.
- (5) Where a law practice acts for the mortgagee on instructions to extend the term of the security, the law practice is entitled to charge, for instructions, an amount not exceeding 40% of the instruction fee that would be payable in relation to an original security for the same amount as that secured by the security as extended.

9. Instruction fees for leases

- (1) Where a law practice lawfully acts for both the lessor and the lessee in respect of a lease or an extension of lease, the law practice is entitled to charge for instructions only the instruction fee set out in item 4 in relation to a lessor.
- (2) For the purposes of calculating the instructions fees set out in item 4:
  - (a) where a term of a lease exceeds 12 years but does not exceed 26 years, the instruction fee shall be calculated on the basis of the rent payable during the first 12 years of the lease;
  - (b) where the term of the lease exceeds 26 years, the instruction fee shall be calculated on the basis of the rent payable during the first 15 years of the lease,
 and for this purpose the term “rent”:
  - (c) includes any moneys payable as a premium for the granting of the lease;
  - (d) but does not include any moneys payable or reserved under or by the lease in respect of:
    - (i) rates and taxes whether by way of reimbursement of the lessor or otherwise; or
    - (ii) expenditure incurred by the lessor in the conduct or management of the lease and premises or of any other property of which the leased premises forms part.

10. Limitations on instruction fee in item 3

In relation to an instruction fee set out in item 3:

- (a) any amount secured by an existing collateral security prepared by the same law practice within one year prior to the instructions shall be deducted from the amount to be secured before calculating the instruction fee; and
- (b) where the security is for an annuity and the term during which the annuity is to be paid is a period exceeding 12 years or for life - the instruction fee shall be calculated on the basis that the amount secured is 12 times either the annual payment or the average of the first 12 payments.

11. Uncompleted business

Where any business is not completed the instruction fee payable shall be the proportion of the relevant instruction fee payable under this Determination as is reasonable in the circumstances.

12. Services related to item 5

- (1) The fees set out in item 5 are the remuneration payable in respect of acting on instructions for the completion by transfer of an executed contract for the sale of land registered under the Transfer of Land Act 1893 and include the fees for all services usually performed in respect of the transaction and in particular:
- (a) the investigation of title;
  - (b) enquiries of and advice to all rating and taxing authorities of change of ownership;
  - (c) the adjustment of rates and taxes;
  - (d) preparation, execution, stamping and the registration of the transfer; and
  - (e) the arrangements for and attendances on settlement including the discharge of encumbrances,
- but the remuneration does not include the fees for:
- (f) any service performed or rendered in respect of an amendment to the contract of sale;
  - (g) the perusal of any document other than the contract of sale;
  - (h) the preparation of any document other than the transfer;
  - (i) requisitions on title or answers thereto;
  - (j) correspondence or attendances as may be rendered necessary by the amendment to, or the preparation of, any document other than the transfer;
  - (k) correspondence or attendances not usually involved in respect of completion of the contract of sale including interpretation of or enforcement of the contract of sale; or
  - (l) any costs or expenses lawfully incurred due to the distance of the law practice from the place of settlement or from an office of the Western Australian Land Information Authority, established under the Western Australian Land Authority Act 1992.
- (2) Where a law practice acting on instructions to which item 5 applies is obliged to perform additional services which are not services to which item 5 applies, the law practice is entitled to charge for those additional services at the rate set out in item 7.

13. Preparing documents and copies for execution, photocopying, facsimile and electronic transmissions - item 6

The fees set out in items 601 and 602 are fees in addition to time taken to prepare documents, including amendments to drafts or standard documents, and:

- (a) in the case of item 601, the fee is intended to recognise the cost to, and time taken by, a law practice in the preparation and maintenance of standard precedents; by way of example, a standard office lease, shop lease, assignment of lease, extension of lease and mortgage; and
- (b) in the case of item 602, the fee is intended to recognise the cost to, and time taken by, a law practice in the preparation, availability and maintenance of a document which is not a standard precedent within item 601, and the skill, cost of preparation and maintenance of having that document available.

14. Item 8 - counsel rates

These rates apply when counsel, being an Australian Lawyer who practises in accordance with Supreme Court Consolidated Practice Direction 10.5, is briefed to give advice, draft or settle documents or undertake any other work that is not contentious and is therefore not covered by the Legal Profession (Supreme and District Courts) (Contentious Business) Determination 2024, or any other contentious business determination published by the Committee.

Where it is reasonably necessary to brief counsel to undertake work that is non-contentious, the rates set out in item 8 are recoverable in addition to work which comes within the other items of this Determination.

15. Effect on costs of Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The hourly rates and the calculation of fees under each of the items in Table A are inclusive of GST. If any amount calculated under items 1 to 4 is not divisible by 11, it should be rounded up to the next highest amount which is divisible by 11.
