Inclusion of Disclosure Clause

State agencies must include a gender equality in procurement disclosure clause in all goods, services, works and community services approach to market documents for procurements with an estimated contract value of $250,000 and above.

The disclosure clause must be in the form published by the Department of Finance, available in the Gender Equality in Procurement – Disclosure Clause document published on wa.gov.au.

Supporting information

The disclosure clause asks potential suppliers to disclose whether they comply with their applicable legislative obligations, and in doing so seeks to increase awareness and understanding of these obligations.

The Gender Equality in Procurement Guideline contains further information to assist State agencies and suppliers using this clause and can be found at Gender Equality in Procurement on wa.gov.au.
