Application to register a change of name (child under 18 years)

General Information

Eligibility

- The child must be under 18 years of age.
- The child must be born or their birth must be registered in Western Australia (WA).
- If the child was born overseas, they must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident and have been living in WA continuously for the 12 months immediately preceding this application. See page 2
- If the child is a Restricted Person, they must have the approval of their Supervisory Authority. See page 2

Please contact the Registry on 1300 305 021 for further advice if any of the following apply

- Child was born in WA, is under 12 months of age and only the given name(s) are to be changed.
- Birth parents marry after the child's birth.
- Parent's details are to be added to the child's birth registration.

Born Interstate

You must apply to the Registry in the State or Territory of your child's birth.

Multiple name changes

A child's name can only be changed by registration in Australia once in any 12 month period unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Who can apply

When a child is under 18 years of age and has not been married

- Both parents must apply to change the child's name or
- One parent may apply if they are the sole parent named in the child's birth registration or
- One parent makes an application and the other parent is deceased. A death certificate must be provided or
- A sealed court order from the Family Court is provided with this application or
- Legal guardian(s) may apply if both parents are deceased (death certificates required), cannot be found or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities (proof of guardianship must be provided).

Successful applications

- If the child was born in WA their birth certificate will record the new name at the bottom of the certificate, and will appear on all birth certificates issued after the change of name is registered. The child's original birth name will still be recorded on the birth certificate.
- Name changes may be notified to other organisations such as the Police Department, Corrective Services, Passport Office, Department of Home Affairs and Department of Transport etc.

Can this application be refused?

The Registrar can refuse this application if

- You are unable to provide the required proof of identity documents.
- If the child has had a change of name registered within the last 12 months anywhere in Australia.
- You have not declared all previous changes of name no matter where they occurred.
- If the child is a Restricted Person and you are unable to provide permission from their Supervisory Authority. See page 2
- The child is ineligible, or their new name is considered to be a prohibited name ie obscene or offensive, too long, includes symbols without phonetic significance, cannot be established by repute or usage or is considered to be against the public interest.
- There is reason to believe that the application has been made for fraudulent or improper purposes.

You will be notified in writing if your application is refused.

Supporting documentation

- Photo ID must be provided for the child (if aged 12 years or more) and the parent(s) or guardian(s) who are making the application. See pages 3, 9-11
- If applying in person, original documents must be provided.
- For postal applications, clear and legible copies must be provided.
- Proof of previous legal name changes of the child must be presented (eg name change, citizenship certificate). See page 7
- Overseas documents must be translated into English by an accredited NAATI translator located in Australia. Overseas translations will not be accepted.

- If the application to change the child's name is being lodged in accordance with a court order (ie by a court appointed guardian, single parent or otherwise) then a formally issued and sealed copy of all court orders must be provided with a statutory declaration confirming the orders are current and no further orders are in existence. Before lodging any application the applicant should contact the Registry and confirm if the court orders are suitable for changing the child's name. See page 5
- Any other additional documents requested by the Registry.

Born overseas (ONLY)

- If the child is an Australian citizen, their birth certificate, current passport and citizenship certificate must be provided.
- If the child is a permanent resident of Australia, their birth certificate and a current passport or visa showing proof of their residency status must be provided.
- You must provide at least two (2) separate forms of documentary evidence of the parents, and if available the child living in WA continuously for the 12 months immediately preceding this application.
