

Demonstrated requirements compliance through custom solutions

Dongara Marine

Core Capability

Shipbuilding, ship repair, aluminium fabrication, composite structure manufacture, interior fitout, marine coating application, electrical fitout.

Capability Description

Construction, modification, refit and repair of vessels and other structures up to ~35m in length from aluminium and/or composites and all trades and skills related to those activities.

Full service capability and capacity to undertake virtually all aspects of construction, testing, project management, and business administration in-house maximises control over technical, schedule, quality, and cost performance.

Competitive Discriminators

- Custom design and manufacture approach facilitates solutions optimised for specific client/operation requirements
- Decades of experience in vessel design, construction, maintenance, and operation ensures products are optimised for whole-of-life performance and cost
- Full-service capability enables cost and time efficient project delivery with low risk and ease of engagement for client
- Locally operating SME ensures compliance with local requirements and supports Australian industry participation

Key Customers

- Department of Fire and Emergency Services (WA)
- Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (WA)
- Northern Territory Police
- Various other government and commercial clients

Key Partners

- Vessel designers including Southerly Designs
- Geraldton Marine Electronics (Electronics integrator)
- All major engine manufacturers

Company Information

Annual Turnover	$20 Million
No of Employees	75
Currently Exporting at	Currently June 2025

Quality Certifications

Contact Details

+61 8 9927 2257
admin@dongaramarine.com.au

169 Connell Road, West End 6530
Western Australia
dongaramarine.com.au