

Private Rental Aboriginal Assistance Loan (PRAAL) Policy

Purpose

This document outlines the conditions under which a PRAAL will be granted to an applicant and the obligations of the recipient if it is granted.

The PRAAL scheme is a Department of Housing and Works (the Department) initiative that aims to prevent homelessness by providing an interest free loan to help Indigenous Australians pay their rental arrears where they are at risk of losing their private rental tenancy.

Scope

This policy applies to applicants of the PRAAL Scheme.

Policy Statements

The Loan

1. The assistance provided by PRAAL is an interest-free loan of up to (but not exceeding) six weeks' rental arrears for a current private rental tenancy.
2. PRAAL approval is wholly at the discretion of the Department.
3. The approved loan amount will be paid directly to the lessor (or authorised agent) on behalf of the PRAAL recipient.

Eligibility

4. To be eligible for a PRAAL applicants must:
  - be an Indigenous Australian or have an Indigenous Australian child/family member in the household.
  - be income and asset eligible for a Bond Assistance Loan.
  - reside in private rental accommodation (not community housing or public housing).
  - be a signatory to the Tenancy Agreement and contribute to the weekly rent; and
  - reside in a household at risk of eviction with a minimum of two weeks and a maximum of six weeks' rental arrears.
5. Applicants must provide consent for the Department to provide information to and receive information from the lessor (or authorised agent) in relation to the loan provided and the tenancy to which it relates.

Existing Debt

6. Applicants with existing debt to the Department or a history of default may be refused a PRAAL.

Loan Repayment

7. Recipients must enter into an arrangement to repay the loan at the time of loan approval. Any arrangement for the household to share responsibility for the debt is a private matter between the recipient and members of the household.
8. The Department has the right to set the terms of the repayment arrangement.
9. Failure to repay the loan in accordance with the loan agreement may result in the debt being referred to a commercial debt collection agency.
