

Public Sector Administration

Illustration of some core legislative and administrative arrangements that apply in the WA public sector

Public Sector Management Act 1994

Public administration and management principles (section 7)
Service to the community; financial management and accounting; record keeping

Human resource management principles (section 8)
Merit and equity in selection processes; no nepotism or patronage; fair and consistent treatment of employees; no unlawful discrimination; safe and healthy working conditions

Conduct principles (section 9)
Standards and codes; integrity; scrupulous use of official information, equipment and facilities; courtesy, consideration and sensitivity

Code of ethics (section 21)
Minimum standards of conduct and integrity