Application to register a change of name (adult 18 years or older)

General Information

Eligibility

- You must be 18 years of age or older.
- Your birth must be registered in Western Australia (WA).
- If born overseas, you must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident and have been living in WA continuously for the 12 months immediately preceding this application.
- If you are a Restricted Person you must have the approval of your Supervisory Authority. See page 2

Born interstate

You must apply to the Registry in the State or Territory where your birth is registered.

Multiple name changes

You can only register a change of name in Australia:

- once in any 12 month period and
- three times as an adult.

Change of surname by marriage

If married in Australia, you can choose to assume your spouse's surname. Registration of a change of name is not usually required.

The Registry is not able to advise if you are required to register a change of name.

If you were married overseas or reverting to your maiden surname, you must check if you need to register a change of name with any organisation requiring evidence of your surname, as they will advise what is acceptable.

Successful applications

If you were born in WA, your birth certificate will record the new name at the bottom of the certificate and will appear on all birth certificates issued after the change of name has been registered. Your original birth name will still be recorded on your birth certificate.

Name changes may be notified to other organisations such as the Police Department, Corrective Services, Passport Office, Department of Home Affairs and Department of Transport etc.

Can this application be refused?

The Registrar can refuse this application if

- You are unable to provide the required proof of identity documents.
- If you have registered a change of name within the last 12 months anywhere in Australia.
- If you have changed your name 3 times or more as an adult by registration anywhere in Australia.
- You have not declared all previous changes of name no matter where they occurred.
- If you are a Restricted Person and are unable to provide approval from your Supervisory Authority. See page 2
- Where requested, you decline to provide current documentation relating to your credit rating and/or a criminal history check.
- You have outstanding debts or an adverse criminal history check.
- You are ineligible, or your new name is considered to be a prohibited name ie obscene or offensive, too long, includes symbols without phonetic significance, cannot be established by repute or usage or is considered to be against the public interest.
- There is reason to believe that the application has been made for fraudulent or improper purposes.

You will be notified in writing if your application is refused.

Supporting documentation

- Provide at least three (3) forms of identification (ID) with this application. See page 3
- You must provide photo identification. See pages 3, 8
