Agency Capability Framework

Supporting the Agency Capability
Review Program

Updated January 2026

Agency Capability Framework

Leadership, culture and governance

The focus of this area is on the leadership, culture and governance that underpin the agency’s ability to meet both the needs of the people it serves and government priorities.

Capability – Purpose, vision and strategy: The purpose, vision and strategy articulate the value the agency delivers to Western Australians, and are aligned to government priorities and legislative functions. They are clear to those internal and external to the agency. The agency is responsive to changes that affect its services.

Capability – Values, culture and behaviour: The desired values and culture are developed in collaboration with staff and stakeholders. They are embedded throughout the agency and integrated into the way the business is managed and services are delivered. Leaders drive continuous improvement, and innovation supports a future focus.

Capability – Leadership: Leaders work together to deliver agreed strategic priorities and objectives. How the agency is structured and the governance mechanisms it has in place influence its effectiveness and ability to manage change.

Capability – Review and reflection: The agency values and uses information and evaluation to maintain performance and drive improvement. Leaders reflect on both their own performance and the performance of the agency to ensure services are contemporary and the agency is well positioned to deliver future priorities.

Capability: Purpose, vision and strategy

The purpose, vision and strategy articulate the value the agency delivers to Western Australians, and are aligned to government priorities and legislative functions. They are clear to those internal and external to the agency. The agency is responsive to changes that affect its services.

	How do the agency's leaders reflect on the performance of the agency as a whole as well as individual areas?
	What feedback mechanisms does the agency have and how is feedback incorporated into its strategic planning?

Service excellence

The focus of this area is on understanding the expectations, needs and experiences of citizens when services and policy advice are designed and delivered.

Capability – Citizen focus and co-design: Core to delivering effective service outcomes and value is a deep understanding of the experiences, needs and expectations of citizens. Genuine and meaningful engagement – particularly with people from diverse and vulnerable groups – ensures fit for purpose services.

Capability – Strategic policy: High quality and detailed policy work determines the best ways for the agency to meet government priorities and its strategic objectives.

Capability – Service improvement: The agency is more likely to be effective if it continually looks at ways to improve the quality of service delivery. Collecting and acting on feedback supports the agency to design better and more cost effective services.

Capability – Managing for results: How well the agency designs and delivers its services, how it marshals valuable and often scarce resources, and how it sets itself up to deliver on its purpose to achieve outcomes valued by citizens all contribute to service excellence.

Capability: Citizen focus and co-design

Core to delivering effective service outcomes and value is a deep understanding of the experiences, needs and expectations of citizens. Genuine and meaningful engagement – particularly with people from diverse and vulnerable groups – ensures fit for purpose services.

Practice	Guiding questions	Possible sources of evidence

	How well does the agency ensure external service providers achieve high service delivery results?
	How clearly do the agency’s leaders articulate expectations to drive high performance?
	How well are the agency’s programs and projects coordinated and aligned to achieve the best possible results?
	How does the agency improve and refine measurement and management of its performance over time?

Relationships

The focus of this area is on strong relationships of trust and confidence to deliver high quality public services, with greatest impact achieved when partnerships are prioritised.

Capability – Ministers, boards and committees: Political stewardship is strongest with portfolio ministers who set the agenda for the agency’s performance. Relationships with other ministers recognise the increasing focus on shared outcomes. Sound advice and evidence, along with understanding of shared goals and preferences, help inform board and committee decision making.

Capability – WA public sector agencies and government entities: A constrained fiscal environment requires greater collaboration in meeting government priorities. Shared outcomes are achieved when relationships across the sector are built, nurtured and maintained.

Capability – Federal, state and international jurisdictions: Intergovernmental relationships add value to Western Australians. They help drive joint and cooperative actions to secure mutual benefits and respond to national issues.

Capability – Delivery partners: Relationships are most productive when the agency develops and maintains the support of its partners and builds trust. Shared understanding and commitment ensure the needs of citizens are prioritised.

Capability: Ministers, boards and committees
