

QUAD CHART

Company summary / contact

- WA-based not-for-profit workplace learning partner in complex industries.
- Delivers practical, face-to-face and blended learning, executive education, qualifications and customised solutions.
- Metro (incl. Southern Corridor), State-wide, National and International delivery.

Bec Fong
Head of Customised Solutions

M: 0428 898 649
E: bfong@aimwa.com
W: aimwa.com

Strengthens leadership, project, procurement and workforce capability across defence supply chains

Supports primes, subcontractors and industrial partners to execute safely, reliably and at scale, whilst maintaining compliance, quality and operational integrity.

Defence-aligned value proposition

68+

years of experience

15,000

learners per year

66

training-course NPS

Cert-IV-MBA

qualification range

Capabilities

Integrated capability development aligned to real operational environments:

- Leadership and Management – capability development from frontline to senior leadership
- Project and Program Management – delivery of governance, procurement, supplier management and contracts

- Process Improvement including lean, six sigma, artificial intelligence and Microsoft computing skills
- Risk, WHS, Psychological Safety and Respectful Workplace - training
- Workforce Performance and Culture - team effectiveness, communication, coaching and change

Delivery includes co-designed in-house programs, diagnostics, facilitation, consulting and Executive Education in partnership with the UWA Business School.

- Practical delivery model with face-to-face, blended and workplace-integrated learning.
- Proven track record of delivery at scale across resources, government and industry.
- End-to-end, tailored capability partner to diagnose, co-design, deliver and evaluate.
- Defence relevant expertise with facilitators and consultants with experience in complex industries and defence adjacent environments.

- Established relationships with prime contractor clients in the Henderson area.
- Southern Corridor delivery and flexible on-site/inhouse options.
- WA-based not-for-profit and registered charity that reinvests in local capability.

Differentiators

Customers/ecosystems

- Henderson-based primes, suppliers and subcontractors
- ICN Gateway project owners and SuperPrime portals
- Defence, maritime and industrial employers in the Southern Corridor
- Resources, mining services and infrastructure sectors
- WA State Government and Local Government.

Key markets/use cases

- Leadership pipeline and supervisor readiness
- Project delivery, governance, risk and schedule performance
- Procurement, contracts and commercial capability
- WHS, psychological safety and safety leadership
- Team effectiveness, communication and change leadership
- Executive education and enterprise capability uplift

Credentials/delivery

- RTO Code 0058 and qualifications from Certificate IV to MBA
- Executive Education with UWA Business School
- Perth campus, Southern Corridor, client-site, and virtual delivery options
- Public short courses, in-house programs and customised solutions
- International delivery experience, (including Malaysia).