

Brooksbank Valves is a specialist manufacturer of engineered seawater isolation valves for naval defence and shipbuilding, with more than 70 years' experience in marine applications. Through Brooksbank Valves Australia, the company delivers sovereign, in-country manufacturing, service support and the supply of seawater isolation and pressure-related valves to Australian naval programmes.

CAPABILITIES

- Valve Supply
- Valve Manufacturing
- Service and Repair
- Stock Program
- Replacement Parts
- Pressure Testing
- Mechanical Assemblies
- Pressure and Valve Engineering
- Pressure Relief Valve Sizing

DISCRIMINATORS

- Global Footprint, Local Expertise
- Corrosion Resistant Alloy Manufacturing Experts
- Backed by over 70 years of safe and reliable engineered solutions
- Successfully manufactured and supplied over 2,600 valves to the Hunter Class Frigate Program (HCFP)
- Proven international partners supporting surface and sub surface pressure engineering solutions

KEY CUSTOMERS

KEY MARKETS (Local / International & Potential)

- RAN – Naval Defence
- RN – Naval Defence
- International Naval Defence Platforms
- Maritime
- Oil and Gas
- Desalination
- Sea Water cooling
- HVAC
- Mining – Severe Service

ACCREDITATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

Contact: Will Waldon | General Manager

brooksbankvalves.com.au