Application for a change of registration of sex or gender for a child (12 to 17 years) born in Western Australia

General Information

Eligibility

- The child must be at least 12 years of age and under 18 years of age.
- The child's birth must be registered in Western Australia (WA).
- The child must have a statement from a doctor or psychologist certifying that the child has received appropriate clinical treatment in relation to their sex or gender and that the child understands the meaning and implications of this application.
- If the child is a Restricted Person, you must have the approval of a Supervisory Authority. See page 2
- The child's sex or gender has not been changed within the last 12 months.

Successful application

If this application is successful, the child's change of sex or gender will be recorded within the Register of Births, Deaths and Marriages and the birth certificate will record the new sex or gender. The child's original birth sex will still be recorded within the Register of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

Who can apply

- Both parents must apply to change the registration of the child's sex or gender or
- One parent may apply if they are the sole parent named in the child's birth registration or the other parent is deceased or
- Legal guardian(s) may apply if both parents are deceased, cannot be found or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities. An application may be made by joint guardians only if the joint guardians both support this application.

Supporting documentation

- The child's original WA Birth Certificate must be provided. All previously issued birth certificates must also be returned with this application.
- A statement by a doctor or psychologist must be provided certifying that the child has received appropriate clinical treatment in relation to the child's sex or gender and understands the meaning and implications of this application.
- Photo identification (ID) must be provided for the child and the parent(s) or guardian(s) who are making this application. See pages 3, 8-10
- If applying in person, original documents must be provided.
- For postal applications, clear and legible copies must be provided.
- Proof of all previous sex or gender changes must be provided.
- Overseas documents must be translated into English by an accredited NAATI translator located in Australia. Overseas translations will not be accepted.
- The child must complete and sign the statement of consent. See page 11
- Any other additional documents requested by the Registry.

Checklist

Incomplete applications will cause delays and may be refused. A checklist has been included to assist you meeting all the requirements prior to submitting this application. See page 13
