

Collection Notice

Contaminated Sites privacy

The Department of Water and Environmental Regulation (DWER), through the Contaminated Collection service site, collects personal information such as:

- name and contact details (e.g. address, email, phone number)
- organisation and business details (if applicable)
- information provided in reports, forms, or supporting documents.

We only collect personal information that is reasonably necessary to process submissions and requests. Your personal information will be used for the purpose for which it was collected, or for a related purpose where permitted by law.

You are required to provide this personal information under the Contaminated Sites Act 2003 (CS Act). Under section 96 of the CS Act, the identity of all Form 1 submitters remains confidential. We do not usually disclose this information outside DWER unless required or authorised by law.

Providing this information is necessary to enable DWER to process your report. You may choose to remain anonymous; however, if you do not provide the requested information, DWER may be unable to process your report or request, provide the requested service, or meet its regulatory and administrative obligations.

DWER will handle your personal information in accordance with the Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing Act 2024 and DWER's Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing.

This collection notice supplements DWER's Privacy Collection Notice, which is available on the DWER website.

If you have questions about how your information is handled, or wish to change and update your personal information, submit a request here.

For any other enquiries, contact DWER on 1300 762 982.
