Part 2 Notification of change in eligibility to hold a licence

To be eligible to hold a licence, a licensee must have legal access to the property. When a property with an associated water licence is sold, the licensee no longer has legal access to the property from the date of settlement, unless authorised by the new owner. If you do not have written authority from the new owner to continue to access the property, you must notify the department within 30 days of access ceasing that you are no longer eligible to hold a licence.

Please complete the statement below:

I/we hereby provide notification that as of	(DD/MM/YYYY), I/we believe that I/we may have ceased to be eligible to hold a licence.

Once a licensee is no longer eligible to hold a licence, the licence will be terminated unless the licensee(s) requests a delay in termination within 30 days of ceasing to be eligible.

Do you wish to request to delay termination of the licence?	Yes	Complete Part 3
	No	Complete Part 4

Part 3: Request to delay termination

Termination of the licence can be delayed for up to six months from the date this form is received by the Department of Water and Environmental Regulation.

I/we request to delay the termination of the licence to be delayed until	(DD/MM/YYYY).
--	---------------

During this period I/we intend to:

☐	Transfer the licence to the new proprietor.
☐	Trade the entitlement to another person in the same subarea.
☐	Amend the property address on the licence to another property I/we I hold or will acquire in the same subarea.
☐	Surrender the licence.

Part 4: Signature or seal of applicant

Important information

Regulation 25. Licensee no longer eligible to hold licence to inform the department.

1. A licensee who ceases, or who has reason to suspect that he or she may have ceased, to be eligible in terms stated in Schedule 1 clause 3 of the Act to hold a licence is to inform the department in writing of that fact within 30 days of the licensee ceasing to be eligible. Penalty: $1000.
2. On receiving notice under subregulation (1), the department is to inform the licensee in writing of the time when the licence will be terminated.
3. At the request of a licensee referred to in subregulation (1), the Department may agree in writing that the licence is to be terminated at the end of a period, not exceeding 6 months from the time the department received notice under subregulation (1).
