

Foreign Landholder Duty - Developer Exemption

Application for Reassessment

Section 205ZO-205ZQ of the Duties Act 2008

A foreign landholder acquisition will be exempt from foreign landholder duty where the landholder, a linked entity or associate of the landholder develops the lot to produce 10 or more dwellings, or lots on which 10 or more dwellings can be constructed.

See information about foreign landholder developer exemptions on our website at <https://www.wa.gov.au/government/publications/foreign-landholder-duty>.

When to use this form

Use this form to apply for a reassessment of landholder duty if:

- a foreign landholder acquisition was assessed with duty based on the landholder, or a linked entity, holding residential property, which the landholder, linked entity or an associate intended to develop and
- the landholder, linked entity or an associate of the landholder has commenced or completed on the residential property (as relevant):
 - the construction or refurbishment of 10 or more dwellings or
 - the subdivision of the property into 10 or more residential lots.

When to apply

You must apply for reassessment of the foreign landholder duty within the later of five years after the acquisition occurs or 12 months from the date the landholder, linked entity or associate commences or completes (as relevant) the construction, refurbishment or subdivision of the land. See the Foreign Landholder Developer Exemptions web page for information about the timeframes for commencing and completing development.
