

Summary of current situation

- Seventy-eight inspections this week for a total of 2,716 inspections since the start of our inspection blitz in early March, resulting in 123 infringements issued so far.
- Fuel supplies are stable for September and October and fuel station stockouts continue to remain low across the State.
- Shipments of fuel to WA continue in line with recent trends, with four shipments expected this week.
- There is more fuel in WA now than at the same time last year.
- We're continuing to work actively with industry to ensure WA has access to the most detailed supply chain information in the country.
- Over 1,140,200 Western Australians have claimed the $100 Fuel Support Payment. More information at wa.gov.au/FuelPayment

Keeping Australia Moving

Fuel supply continues to operate effectively, but localised supply disruptions are occurring. Federal and State Governments are taking precautionary actions to shore up supply.

Using legislative provisions to ensure timely information from industry.

Considering regulatory reforms to improve freight efficiency.

Monitoring and reporting fuel station supply, including diesel.

Monitoring economic impacts on fuel-exposed industries.
