Global Coating Systems Pty Ltd (GCS) is an Australian-owned specialist in the preparation and application of advanced protective coatings engineered for defence environments. With operational bases in Henderson and Port Hedland, WA, GCS supports sovereign defence capability through certified application of Rhino Linings, a world-leading coating technology manufactured in Queensland and the USA.

Our coating systems are designed to protect and preserve military vehicles, vessels, and critical infrastructure, offering features such as:

- Self-healing properties
- Corrosion and water ingress prevention
- Ballistic and blast protection
- Abrasion and impact durability
- High heat resistance
- Increased Survivability

GCS plays a critical role in enhancing asset survivability, lifecycle extension, and mission readiness across the defence sector, delivering tailored solutions that meet Australia's strategic and operational requirements.
